

SIPA / ICDC 14th Annual Conference
November 9th – 10th, 2009
Heritage Inn in Moose Jaw

“Irrigation Benefits Everyone!”

Monday, November 9th

- 1:00 Display setup
- 2:00 Registration
- 3:00 Welcome
- 3:15 Lake Diefenbaker Infill - Implications to Irrigators and the Province
Infill Announcement – TBA
Irrigators from 3 infill projects
- 3:30 South West Transition – Implications to Irrigators - Steven Gunter
- 4:15 Irrigation Expansion – Westside and Qu’Appelle South
What needs to be done to be shovel ready? - TBA
Discussion
- 5:00 Cocktails
- 6:00 Banquet
- 7:30 Irrigation Benefits Everyone 2050 - Kevin Hursh
- A snapshot of what irrigation and business development will look like in 2050
- 8:30 A Time to Socialize!

Watch the website for updates!

Brought to you by SIPA – Saskatchewan Irrigations Projects Association Inc.
&
ICDC – Irrigation Crop Diversification Corporation

Tuesday, November 10th

7:00 Breakfast

8:00 SIPA Annual Meeting

9:00 ICDC Conference Kick-off – Board Chairman

9:15 ICDC Program Reports- Gerry Gross PAg, Irrigation Branch/ICDC

- Dry Bean Varieties, Cereal Fungicides and Agro-forestry - Rory Cranston AAg, Irrigation Branch/ICDC
- South West Program and Projects - Gary Kruger MSc, CCA, Irrigation Branch/ICDC

10:30 Coffee

11:00 ICDC Annual Meeting

12:00 Lunch

1:00 ICDC Program Reports- continued

- Canola, Forages & Organics - Sarah Sommerfeld PAg, Irrigation Branch/ICDC

1:45 Irrigation Monitoring and Automation at CSIDC – Speaker TBD

2:30 Safe Trip Home